MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Lisa Marsh Ryerson

*University President and CEO
Southern New Hampshire University*

Dear graduates, families and friends,

I'm thrilled to be celebrating our graduates with you at our 2025 Spring Commencement!

We are recognizing 19,000 graduates this spring. Congratulations to all of you! It took a great deal of commitment and perseverance to reach this milestone, and I hope you take a moment to reflect with pride on your accomplishment. As a first-generation college graduate, I understand the importance of lifelong learning and how earning your college degree can unlock opportunities for ourselves, our families and our communities. I'm sure you have many exciting accomplishments still ahead of you.

I also want to thank the families and friends celebrating our graduates with us. Your encouragement and support helped make this celebration possible.

Enjoy your celebration, and congratulations to the Class of 2025!

With gratitude,

Lisa

A TRADITION STEEPED IN HISTORY

COMMENCEMENT PROCESSION

A procession of the various participants begins and ends our formal commencement ceremony. Individuals are arranged to reflect the order of academic rank in the hierarchy of the traditional European university.

At SNHU, the Mace Bearer leads the procession. He or she is followed by the Faculty Marshals, the Platform Party, and then the Faculty of the schools arranged in order of seniority, beginning with the senior faculty. The procession is concluded by the degree candidates. They enter in groups representing their schools/units, led by a gonfalon (flag) and walking in rank.

CEREMONIAL MACE

The mace was first used as a weapon. The word comes from the Latin 'mateola,' meaning mallet or staff. It consisted of a long club with a ball of steel or brass at one end. As newer weapons came into use, the mace lost its prime purpose as an instrument of war; however, it had become a symbol of authority and power. Universities in Europe with roots in the Middle Ages adopted maces as symbols of authority and unity. Since then, other institutions of higher learning have come to use the mace in their ceremonies.

Southern New Hampshire University commissioned David Elwell, a New Hampshire silversmith, to create a mace to commemorate the university's 50th anniversary commencement. This mace is made of brass, aluminum, copper, and bronze, with a staff of ebony and African padauk.

THE PRESIDENTIAL MEDALLION

The Presidential Medallion, worn by the president with academic regalia, is a symbolic representation of the authority and responsibility vested by the university in the president. It is a symbol of office that dates from medieval times and is worn by the president at all ceremonial occasions.

The Presidential Medallion is a permanent possession of the university and is presented to successive presidents at their inaugurations by the chairman of the Board of Trustees. The chain and medallion are fabricated from sterling silver. The university emblem, in relief, is the central design on the medallion. It is surrounded by a border of entwined wires, similar in texture to the chain links, and finished with a square raised edge. The heavy, twisted links of the chain bear four oval plates on each side. The background of the entire piece is oxidized to highlight the relief design and textures. The names of those who have held the office are engraved on the reverse side of the medallion.

The Presidential Medallion was designed and fabricated in 1987 by award-winning New Hampshire metalsmith Jacquelyn Ferency of Milford.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic costume worn today originated in the universities of the Middle Ages, when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive gowns served to set students apart from their fellow citizens, hence the perennial controversy between ‘town and gown.’

Until after the Civil War, students at most American universities wore caps and gowns daily while in residence. These varied in design until they were standardized by the American Intercollegiate Commission in 1894. At that time it was decided that all robes would be black; bachelor’s gowns would have long, pointed sleeves; master’s gowns would have long, closed sleeves with slits for the arms at the elbows; and doctor’s gowns would have very full, bell-shaped sleeves, each with three velvet bands matching the velvet facing of the gown opening.

The length of hoods varies with the degree. The lining of the hood indicates the university by the colors. The border of the hood indicates the academic discipline in which the degree was earned.

Students who have studied abroad for one or more semesters will be wearing a sash with the colors of the flag of the country where they studied. The sashes are issued to signify the university’s commitment to provide students with opportunities for acquiring international and cross-cultural experience.

Undergraduate learners that have received ceremonial and/or Latin honors will be wearing a gold cord.

Graduates that are serving in the military or are veterans will be wearing red, white and blue woven cords in recognition and appreciation of their service.

Graduates that served on Student Government Association will be wearing blue and white woven cords.

Participants in campus Undergraduate Research day receive a light blue cord their first year, a plain white cord their second year of participation, and a stole only if they participate for three or more years.

Graduates that have provided academic support as peer educators will be wearing a royal blue cord.

Graduates that have participated as Wolak Learning Fellows will be wearing a green cord.

Campus graduates that has provided 100 hours or more of community service and online learners that have been accepted into the Active Citizen Network will be wearing an orange cord.

Many cords are representative of membership in a recognized National Honor Society; a full list is found on subsequent pages.

The colors for academic fields established by the American Council on Education include:

Agriculture	maize
Arts, Letters and Humanities	white
Business, Commerce and Accounting	drab
Dentistry	lilac
Economics	copper
Education	light blue
Engineering	orange
Fine Arts	brown
Forestry	russet
Journalism	crimson
Law	purple
Library Science	lemon
Medicine	green
Music	pink
Nursing	apricot
Oratory	silver gray
Pharmacy	olive green
Philosophy	dark blue
Physical Education	sage green
Public Administration	peacock blue
Science	golden yellow
Social Work	citron
Theology	scarlet
Veterinary Science	gray

(Caps and gowns representing degrees from foreign universities may be quite different from those described. The most obvious difference may be in the cap, which is often a soft, round hat of the style worn by medieval scholars.)

HONOR SOCIETIES

Alpha Chi National College Honor Society (Epsilon Chapter)

SNHU is home to the Epsilon Chapter of Alpha Chi, the National Honor Society for liberal arts majors, which recognizes outstanding scholastic achievement, service, and character. Membership is open to liberal arts majors who have completed at least one half of the work required for a baccalaureate degree, rank in the top 10% of the class, and have earned cumulative GPA of 3.85 or above. Graduates wear blue and green cords. (Symbol: AC)

Alpha Phi Sigma Honor Society (Nu Iota Chapter)

Alpha Phi Sigma is the National Criminal Justice Honor Society, offering membership to qualifying SNHU students with a GPA of 3.2 or higher within the Justice Studies, Policing and Law Enforcement, Crime and Criminology, Terrorism and Homeland Security, or Law and Legal Process programs. Members of SNHU's Nu Iota Chapter wear blue and yellow cords at graduation, while executive board members don yellow and blue stoles. (Symbol: APS)

Alpha Sigma Lambda Honor Society

Founded with the goal of helping non-traditional students connect and further their academic and career goals, Alpha Sigma Lambda is a national honor society recognizing adult learners who display outstanding academic achievement. Students must have completed a minimum of 24 graded semester hour credits at SNHU (with at least 12 in Liberal Arts/Sciences courses) and have a minimum 3.2 GPA. Graduates wear gold and burgundy cords. (Symbol: ASL)

Delta Mu Delta Honor Society (Gamma Nu Chapter)

Delta Mu Delta is an international honor society recognizing outstanding scholastic achievement among both undergraduate and graduate students pursuing business degree programs. To qualify for membership, students must display good character, have completed more than half of their degree program, achieve a GPA of at least 3.6, and be in the top 20% of their class. Members of SNHU's Gamma Nu chapter wear gold and purple cords at graduation. (Symbol: DMD)

Eta Sigma Delta Honor Society

An international hospitality management honor society, Eta Sigma Delta recognizes the academic and professional achievements of students pursuing hospitality management, tourism, and culinary arts degrees. Undergraduate students must achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 3.2, while graduate students must maintain a GPA of at least 3.5 to be eligible for membership. (Symbol: ESD)

National Society of Collegiate Scholars

The National Society of Collegiate Scholars (NSCS) is a non-profit honor society established to encourage and recognize academic achievement. Emphasizing scholarship, leadership, and service, NSCS accepts members who rank in the top 20% of their class, achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 3.4, and attend a college or university with an active NSCS chapter on campus. Membership is for life and is by invitation only. Graduates wear gold cords. (Symbol: CS)

HONOR SOCIETIES

National Society of Leadership and Success

The nation's largest leadership honor society, the National Society of Leadership and Success (NSL, S) provides a step-by-step program to help build leadership skills among its members. To be nominated for membership, undergraduate students must have a minimum 3.0 GPA, while graduate students must have a GPA of 3.5 and have completed nine credits. NSL, S members wear gray and black cords at graduation. (Symbol: LS)

Order of Omega

The Order of Omega is an honor society exclusively for Greek Letter Organizations, and students who display strong leadership, character, and academic achievement. To be eligible for membership, students must be a junior or senior enrolled in a full-time undergraduate program, actively participate in a Greek organization on campus, maintain a GPA above the average Greek GPA, and display good character. Order of Omega members wear white and yellow cords at graduation, while executive board members wear white stoles with gold lettering. (Symbol: OO)

Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society

Phi Theta Kappa is an international honor society that recognizes and encourages scholarship among students in two-year associate degree programs. Dedicated to developing leadership, fellowship, and service opportunities, Phi Theta Kappa members must have completed at least 30 credits (15 at SNHU) as part of a two-year program and maintain a 3.5 GPA or higher. Members wear blue and yellow cords or a gold stole at graduation. (Symbol: PTK)

Pi Lambda Theta

The most selective honor society for educators, Pi Lambda Theta recognizes the academic achievement and outstanding disposition of education students. Undergraduate students must achieve at least a 3.5 GPA to earn membership, while graduate students must achieve a GPA of 3.9. All members must demonstrate exceptional disposition throughout their academic program. Upon graduation, members wear gold cords. (Symbol: PLT)

HONOR SOCIETIES

Psi Chi Honor Society

Psi Chi is an international honor society for psychology students and is designed to encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in the pursuit of academic achievement. Membership is open to undergraduate students enrolled in a psychology programs (major or minor) who have completed at least 45 credits (nine in psychology courses), have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.2, and have a minimum GPA of 3.2 in psychology courses. Graduates wear blue and gray cords. (Symbol: PC)

Sigma Gamma Tau

Sigma Gamma Tau (SGT) is a national honor society for Aeronautical Engineering. It was founded at Purdue University in 1953 to offer appropriate recognition to persons of superior scholarship, outstanding character, and professional achievement in the field of Aeronautical Engineering. Today the society has about 50 chapters and 29,000 members. Undergraduate students who are in the upper third of the senior class, upper quarter of the junior class, or upper fifth of the sophomore class are eligible for membership. The society's constitution allows chapters to be established only at universities which have ABET-accredited programs in Aerospace or Aeronautical Engineering. (Symbol: SGT)

Sigma Tau Delta Honor Society (Alpha Pi Psi Chapter)

Sigma Tau Delta is an international English honor society, recognizing academic achievement among students enrolled in English Language and Literature and Creative Writing programs. To be eligible, undergraduate students must have completed at least three semesters at SNHU, have completed two or more literature courses beyond General Education requirements, and have maintained a GPA of at least 3.3. Graduate students must maintain a 3.3 GPA and have completed at least 6 semester hours at SNHU. Members wear red and black cords at graduation. (Symbol: S)

STUDENT SPEAKER

LINH T MAI

Bachelor of Arts, Cum Laude

Good morning, President Ryerson, the board of trustees, faculty, esteemed guests, family, friends, and of course, my fellow SNHU graduates of the class of 2025. Before I begin, I want to take a moment to honor my family—those who are here with me today and those watching from Vietnam. Con xin kính chào ông bà, ba mẹ, các bác, cô chú, anh chị em và các bạn đã đến dự lễ tốt nghiệp của con hôm nay.

Class of 2025, it feels so nice to stand before you today, especially because I finally get to see the top of everyone's head from here. As someone who's always the shortest in the room, I've spent my whole life looking up to others, most of the time out of necessity, but more often out of admiration. And the people I admire most, tower over others not in height, but in character. My parents, with their strength and endless sacrifices, are the reason I'm standing here today.

In 2013, my family left everything familiar in Vietnam so my mom could pursue her master's degree right here at SNHU. At the time, she was juggling jobs to support our family, raising two young kids, and looking after my dad in the hospital, all while shielding me and my sister from the stress, so we could be the carefree kids all children deserve to be. Through it all, she graduated among the top of her class. 10 years later, I now stand in the very place she once stood, following her footsteps and carrying forward her lessons.

My parents have always been the people I look up to. And as I look around this room today, I see that same strength, resilience, and inspiration in all of YOU.

Because no matter how different our journeys have been, we've all faced challenges and probably had to sacrifice some sleep to get here. But despite our questionable sleep schedules, I know there's one thing we've ALL mastered: dreaming. Not the kind that happens when you actually do sleep, but the dreams we hold onto when we're awake. The kind that pushes you forward even when the path is unclear.

I believe we all dream of changing the world in some way. But the truth is, before we can change the world, we need to know what it truly looks like. To see the world's beauty in its entirety, we must accept its pain, its chaos, and its imperfections. Most importantly, we need to look within ourselves. Because change doesn't start "out there", it starts right here.

If you want to see kindness, be kind. If you want justice, stand for what's right. If you want a better future, shape it with your own hands. The people you and I look up to the most didn't wait for the world to change, they changed themselves first. They saw the world for what it was, and imagined what it could be.

And now, my fellow graduates, it's our turn. Soon, we'll walk across this stage, ready to step into the world. But no matter where life takes us next, let's never stop looking up—not just to those who inspire us, but to the possibilities ahead, to the challenges that will shape us, and to the dreams that will drive us.

Class of 2025, The world is waiting. The question is: what will you do?

Congratulations and Thank you. Con xin cảm ơn ạ.

EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARDS

Southern New Hampshire University traditionally has recognized outstanding teaching in its many degree programs. Following an extensive selection process, a full-time faculty member and an adjunct faculty member are honored with the annual “Excellence in Teaching Award.” The process is student-driven with all nominations coming from the student body. A committee of faculty, administrators, and students used the nomination information and the following criteria to select the winners:

- Effectiveness as a classroom teacher;
- Commitment to advising and/or tutoring students beyond what might be expected;
- Professional development to remain current in the discipline and teaching;
- Contributions toward building the reputation or image of the university; and
- A general attitude toward students that demonstrates a concern for their welfare.

The finalists for the 2025 “Excellence in Teaching” Award for campus faculty are:

EXCELLENCE IN STUDENT SUPPORT

The Excellence in Student Support Award is a new award which will be given out annually to recognize eight staff members for making an outstanding impact on the students they serve.

These SNHU staff members demonstrate a strong interest in student growth, education & unity. They serve as an advocate for student issues and show a commitment to student well-being, seeing each student as unique. Going beyond their occupational requirements — through guidance, leadership, and personal interest — they enhance the experience at SNHU. These awards are student-driven, with all nominations coming from the student body. A committee of university leadership and previous award winners used the nomination information and the following criteria to select the winners:

- High level of dedication and commitment to the student body
- Demonstrative attitude of excellence and positive spirit
- Encourages and guides students as they navigate their education and personal experience at SNHU
- Accessible and available to meet with students as needed
- Commitment to student engagement and mentoring beyond what is expected
- Maintains confidentiality

SCHOOL OF ARTS, SCIENCES & EDUCATION

School Of Arts, Sciences & Education

The School of Arts, Sciences and Education is committed to creating a better tomorrow. The programs within these disciplines connect the humanities, sciences, fine arts, civic engagement, mathematics, technology, and social inquiry to prepare for a role that is as central to individual success as it is to a sustainable, well-educated society. Students are encouraged to engage in critical thinking, while developing problem-solving skills, and employing empathy and self-reflection.

We cultivate a passionate community that practices respect, collaboration, creativity and communication. With Associate, Bachelor's, Master's or Doctoral degrees in hand, graduates of the School of Arts, Sciences and Education will become community leaders, teachers, and socially responsible citizens to help us better understand the human experience and bring about a promising future.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

School Of Business

The School of Business at Southern New Hampshire University prepares students for successful careers through a commitment to exceptional teaching of business fundamentals, a relentless focus on the competencies and workplace skills that distinguish high performers in business, and partnerships with businesses and organizations that provide our students with workplace experience and an understanding of today's business environments. The basic knowledge in accounting, economics, finance, marketing, management, leadership, and operations that every business student must attain is no longer sufficient to succeed.

Students today need to be adaptable to succeed in a workplace where jobs that have never existed before are being created daily as new technologies provide opportunities and challenges. They need to understand the implications of a global marketplace that is fully connected and interdependent. And they need to approach every job as an entrepreneur, finding new and better ways of doing things. We pride ourselves on our exceptional faculty that provides a broad, relevant business education designed to launch our students on successful careers and lives.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING, TECHNOLOGY & AERONAUTICS

School Of Engineering, Technology & Aeronautics

The School of Engineering, Technology, and Aeronautics (SETA) is one of Southern New Hampshire University's newest initiatives, underlining our continuing commitment to providing high-quality STEM programs. Our priority at SNHU is to provide students with the best possible learning environment. Top-notch faculty, advanced learning tools, and modern, cutting-edge facilities. The diverse faculty members within SETA bring with them a wealth of experience, including time spent designing video games, serving in the armed forces, and working as scientists and engineers.

These faculty members help guide students through rigorous, hands-on curriculum as they spend time in the machine shop, robotics lab, aeronautics lab, electrical lab, wind tunnel, and other state-of-the-art tools available on campus. To us, success means students achieving their education and career goals—and we pride ourselves on providing them with the resources they need to do so.

Master of Business Administration

Good afternoon, President Ryerson, Board of Trustees, esteemed faculty, staff, proud family members, friends, and my fellow SNHU graduates.

It's an absolute honor to stand here before you today. First and foremost, let's take a moment to appreciate all of the caffeine, late nights, and questionable amounts of stress that got us here. We survived – barely – but we did it!

Like many of you, my journey to this stage wasn't a straight path. I've been a soldier in the United States Army, a police officer, and now, I'm proud to say, a college graduate. Each step along the way has taught me something valuable – like how teamwork is essential, perseverance pays off, and that caffeine is basically a life force.

When I first started this degree, I thought, "How hard could it be?" Then I met statistics. That was humbling. But SNHU gave us the tools, our professors gave us the knowledge, and our families and friends gave us the motivation to push through – even when we questioned our sanity.

But today is about more than just earning a degree. It's about proving to ourselves that we can take on challenges, push through doubt, and come out stronger. It's about the sacrifices we made – time away from family, missed sleep, and the occasional meltdown when Wi-Fi cut out mid-assignment.

And while today is a day of celebration, it's also a moment to honor those who are not here with us – our loved ones who we've lost along the way. They were our biggest supporters, our role models, and the ones who believed in us even when we doubted ourselves.

Though they may not be sitting in the audience today, they are with us in spirit, proud of what we have accomplished. So, let's take a moment to remember them and carry their love and lessons with us as we move forward.

This moment is also about the people who stood by us – our families, friends, and even that one classmate who always had the best discussion board posts. Thank you for your encouragement, your patience, and, in some cases, for pretending to listen when we complained about our assignments. We wouldn't be here without you.

As we step into the next chapter of our lives – whether into new careers, promotions, or entirely different adventures – let's remember that success isn't about never failing; it's about never quitting. It's about showing up, even when it's tough, and proving that we are capable of more than we ever thought possible.

So, to my fellow graduates, let's take this moment in. We worked for this. We earned this. And if we ever doubt ourselves in the future, let's remember this very moment – the moment that we proved we could do it!

Congratulations, class of 2025! We made it!

Good morning, President Ryerson, board of trustees, distinguished faculty, fellow graduates, friends, and family. It is an honor to stand before you today and celebrate this significant milestone in our lives.

I took my first college course in September of 1974. It was a beautiful campus in Pennsylvania, and the end of the Vietnam War brought a sense of peace and hope across the country. I had a football scholarship, and the great music of the '70s was rockin' the campus lawn. From the outside, my life seemed perfect. Yet, on the inside, I wasn't ready for the rigors of college. I wasn't mature enough to focus on my academics. I was working harder on planning weekend parties than I was on my homework. I'm guessing there are some folks here today who can probably relate to that. So, at the end of my third semester, I made a pivotal decision: I left college and joined the United States Air Force.

Those four years in the military taught me invaluable lessons in self-discipline. They sent me to school, where I learned to work on some of the most advanced aircraft systems in the world. That experience led me to a rewarding career in the defense industry, taking me around the globe. Those travels allowed me to see first-hand different coastlines, forests, mountains, lakes, and rivers, and made me realize the urgent need to care for and protect these beautiful places on our planet.

I retired from that career several years ago, and I found myself a little bored, searching for purpose. Standing on the edge of a trout stream one day, reflecting on my travels and the incredible people I met, including my wife, I realized something was still missing: the bachelor's degree I had started 51 years ago. That's when I discovered Southern New Hampshire University.

The Geoscience program aligned perfectly with my passion for studying the Earth and the environment. With my wife's encouragement, it was time to lay the groundwork for my second career—a focused study in natural resources and conservation.

Southern New Hampshire University allowed me to pick up where I left off. The flexibility of online learning allowed me to complete my Bachelor of Science degree while juggling part-time consulting jobs and raising my toddler. But let me tell you, school doesn't get any easier as you get older. You still have to do the work. And that's how we all got here today. We did the work. The graduates here today, from all 50 states, numerous countries, and nationalities, you all did the work. You deserve this day. We deserve this day! So, let's all take a moment here. Take a moment and look at that person sitting beside you and say, "Hey, we did it." We did it!

Today marks a memorable moment for all of us. Some will be starting new careers, others will continue their academic journeys, and some, like me, will use this diploma as a stepping stone to embark on brand-new adventures, to leave a better planet for my toddler and future generations.

Believe me, it's never too late.

Congratulations, class of 2025! Let's go out and do great things.

Good afternoon, everyone. To President Ryerson, the Board of Trustees, the faculty and staff here at SNHU, our family and friends who have joined us both online and here in the audience—and most importantly, my fellow graduates—today we celebrate resilience, dedication, determination, and the power of believing in ourselves. Let me take you back to when I first wrote this speech. It was October 10, 2022. I had just started here at SNHU, and I wrote:

Today, I start a journey in college. I am a 49-year-old man with zero college credits, staring at my computer screen and wondering—am I smart enough? Can I really do this? But here's what I know today: I don't quit. I'm not going to give up on myself.

And if you're hearing these words today... that means we didn't quit. We didn't give up. We pushed through sleepless nights, long shifts, and self-doubt. And still—we made it. It means that on May 4, 2025, we're not just graduating. We're standing here together as proof that if you can see it... if you can imagine it... you can do it. That first class we all took—Success Strategies for Online Learning. If you remember that class, raise your hand. It wasn't just an intro to college—it was the foundation. It reminded us we weren't alone.

And to be real with you... when I first got in there, I thought APA, MLA, Chicago, and AMA were either hockey teams or radio stations. And a citation? Man, I thought that was something you got for running a red light—not that I've ever done that before... Like many of you, we juggled responsibilities—work, family, education. We studied during lunch breaks. We missed movie nights. We gave up calls, dinners, and weekends. Some of us, like me, studied from the Arctic of Alaska... while grandkids were thousands of miles away in the Stone Mountains of Georgia. There were moments I almost gave up. I lost a job. I couldn't pay for school. I felt stuck. But something inside me said, “If you quit now, then why'd you ever start?”

Maybe it was that voice I heard in sixth grade, when an adult whispered, “He's not smart enough.”

I believed that voice for over 30 years. But today, I stand here to say: That voice never had the final say. I did.

Now, while today is big for all of us, I want to share it with two special graduates—my grandkids, Alivia and Marcel. They're graduating kindergarten this month. They told me, “Pawpaw, we're graduating together!” And for a second, I thought—we are! But then I remembered—they had snack and nap time. I had APA citations and research papers!

During my time at SNHU, I took a class called Theories of Personality. If you've taken it, you know—it's deep. That class lit something in me. It reminded me—I wasn't just here to get a degree. I was here to change my future. That's why I'm not stopping at my bachelor's. If I'm going to be 56 someday, I might as well be 56 with a Ph.D. from SNHU. So maybe I'll start writing that speech tonight.

To my biggest fan—my wife Ivy, my children, my siblings, my friends, and my mentors: thank you for believing in me when I struggled to believe in myself. To my grandchildren—Alivia, Marcel, Aubrey, RJ, Ava, Amarie, and Sianni—Pawpaw loves you. And today... we graduate together.

To my fellow graduates—wasn't it worth it? Doesn't it give you goosebumps thinking about how far we've come? Whether it took you two years... five years... or ten years... We made it.

Before I close, I want to leave you with something I say often. If you know me, you've probably heard it before: “Echo me if you will...” It means: If you believe it—say it. If you feel it—own it. So Class of 2025—echo me if you will:

“I am built for this. I have earned this. And I am not done yet.”

Because we're not. This degree is not the finish line—It's the launch pad. And with that being said...

Congratulations, Class of 2025. We did it!

EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING AWARDS

Southern New Hampshire University traditionally has recognized outstanding teaching in its many degree programs. Following an extensive selection process, a full-time faculty member and an adjunct faculty member are honored with the annual “Excellence in Teaching Award.” The process is student-driven with all nominations coming from the student body. A committee of faculty, administrators, and students used the nomination information and the following criteria to select the winners:

- Effectiveness as a classroom teacher;
- Commitment to advising and/or tutoring students beyond what might be expected;
- Professional development to remain current in the discipline and teaching;
- Contributions toward building the reputation or image of the university; and
- A general attitude toward students that demonstrates a concern for their welfare.

The 2025 “Excellence in Teaching” Award for online faculty is awarded to:

Dr. Leanne Skehan, DCN, MPH, MBA,
Health Professions, Full-time Faculty

Alicia B. Corts, M.A.T., Ph.D.,
Gen Ed/FYE, Adjunct Faculty

THE AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED ONLINE TEACHING

Southern New Hampshire University recognizes the exemplary efforts of our adjunct faculty in promoting teaching and learning within its online programs. After an extensive review of student feedback and academic evaluations, nominations are submitted by Associate Deans of Faculty within their curricular units.

Recipients of this award show an unwavering commitment to the following:

- Demonstrates SNHU's commitment to quality instruction and an exceptional student experience;
- Supports students by acknowledging their prior learning and experience, addressing concerns through care and effective communication, and exemplifying an encouraging disposition;
- Engages students proactively, consistently, and authentically to foster academic growth and progress; and
- Utilizes expertise in one's discipline to create connections between course content and current developments in the corresponding field, maximizing student achievement in the online learning environment.

Out of almost 10,000 faculty teaching online with us this year, only one instructor from each of the curricular units is honored with this achievement.

The recipients of the 2025 Distinguished Online Teaching Award are:

Jeremy D. Pretty, Ph.D., MBA, MS	Business
Jackson T. Zimmerman, Ph.D.	College for America
Trigg A. Even, Ph.D.	Counseling
Suzanne Sharkey, Ph.D.	Education
Melanie Schopp, M.Ed.	First Year Experience
Mark Edward Sattler, MA	General Education
Terry Brandes, DBA, MA, BS	Health Professions
Christopher G. Sullivan, MFA, MSM, BS	Liberal Arts
Melanie Cason PhD, MSN, RN, CNE	Nursing
Lisa Chilcote Bacco, MA, CMS	Social Sciences
Christopher M. Brendel, BA	STEM

VIRTUAL STUDENT SPEAKER

SUNNY NOELLE NAUGHTON
Master of Science

Good afternoon, President Ryerson, Board of Trustees, graduates, faculty, families, and friends,

Today, we gather to celebrate not just a milestone but a transformation—one that each of us has crafted through late-night study sessions, juggling work and family, and pushing forward when stopping might have seemed easier. We are here because we chose to grow, to learn, and to create a better future, not just for ourselves but for those we love and the communities we serve.

This is my second master's with SNHU. 14 years ago I left a career as an actress and began my higher education journey. It might be one of the only things on this planet that is truly mine, and that is because it is more than a piece of paper; it was an investment in growing my mind.

For many of us, the journey to this day was anything but easy. We balanced coursework with careers, raising families, caring for aging parents, and managing responsibilities that often felt overwhelming in the world today. I know what it's like to email my professor, letting them know that something else in my life has to come before my milestone, or posting up on that discussion board at 9 PM on a Thursday, to question whether I could keep up, and to wonder if all the hard work was enough. But I also know what it's like to feel that surge of pride when I passed a challenging course, completed a project that felt impossible, or connected with classmates across our world.

Our stories may be different, but we are united by resilience. We are a community of dreamers, of first-generation students daring to break the mold, and of lifelong learners proving that it's never too late to reinvent ourselves. Each of us has taken the unconventional path, and that's what makes this accomplishment so remarkable.

Today, as we stand on the brink of both the end of something and a new beginning, I want to remind you of something powerful: We did not come this far only to come this far. Our diplomas are not just pieces of paper; they symbolize our courage, grit, and refusal to be defined by what others see as limitations. As we step into the next chapters of our lives—whether advancing in our careers, pursuing new passions, or advocating for change—let's remember that our determination brought us here and will carry us forward.

To my fellow graduates: You have earned this moment. Your perseverance has brought you to this stage of your life, and nothing can take that away. Continue to challenge yourself, lift others as you rise, and never forget the power of your own story.

Congratulations to the Southern New Hampshire University Class of 2025! We did it—and this is just the beginning.

Counseling Programs

Counseling Programs

The mission of the Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program is to empower new generations of counselors by transforming the lives of our students, and through them, the lives of the clients and communities they will serve. To achieve this, we deliver innovative, experiential counselor education, create an inclusive environment, and nurture authentic relationships. We recognize that earning a degree in counseling is more than just acquiring a base of knowledge and theories; it is about developing an identity as a healer.

The journey from novice to expert counselor takes many years. The completion of a master's degree is just one step in that journey; yet today, the faculty and staff of the Counseling program at SNHU are proud to present these students who have, by their hard work and perseverance, demonstrated they are ready to take the next step in their journeys, well prepared to have a positive impact on the lives of others, and are grounded in ethical practice that promotes unconditional positive regard and cultural humility towards themselves and their clients.

Education Programs

Education Programs

Within SNHU's Global Campus General Education and First Year Experience program, students demonstrate mastery of enduring skills embedded across the curriculum while investigating professionally relevant topics and authentic learning experiences through the lenses of humanistic, historical, social scientific, and empirical ways of knowing. By asking our students to study these worldviews, we intend to equip them with lifelong skills that enable them to interact through these lenses, make sense of the world and information around them, and analyze interdisciplinary connections within different modes of thought. This work is crucial in order for students to have a transformative college experience that fosters personal growth, encourages proactive engagement in their academic studies, allows for planning for their professional careers, and promotes individuals to give back to their communities.

Liberal Arts Programs

Liberal Arts Programs

SNHU's Global Campus Liberal Arts department at embraces both passion and practicality within our many diverse undergraduate and graduate programs, such as Communication, Creative Writing, Digital Photography, English, General Studies, Graphic Design, History, and Liberal Arts. Our mission is to guide our students' exploration of the human experience to enrich their journeys as dynamic global citizens. In doing this, we foster the development of practical skills, leading to success in their chosen professional paths. We cultivate a passionate community that practices respect, collaboration, creativity, leadership, and communication.

Regardless of discipline area, a Liberal Arts education challenges students to expand their minds while encouraging empathy, creativity, critical thinking, and self-reflection. Liberal arts students sharpen their communication skills for different audiences in a variety of contexts and formats. Students learn to question assumptions in the search for truth. Emboldened by their liberal arts education, our students have a meaningful impact on their local and global communities, as they imagine and bring about a better future.

Nursing Programs

Nursing Programs

Southern New Hampshire University's Nursing department views students in our online programs as respected colleagues who come to us with their own unique views of the world and nursing. At SNHU students are valued for the contributions they bring into the learning environment and are viewed as both learners and learning resources.

Graduates are prepared to be successful nurse leaders, who promote a culture of quality and safety within a diverse society and are responsive to meet the challenges of an ever-evolving health care system.

Social Science Programs

Social Science Programs

SNHU's Global Campus Social Sciences department empowers and supports students to transform their lives and the lives of those around them through high-quality and innovative educational practices that enrich their knowledge and skills in the helping professions. Students apply their knowledge of human behavior through our programs in Anthropology, Criminal Justice,

Human Services, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Our programs provide students with insights at the individual, societal, and global levels in order to create a richer understanding of multiple perspectives and cultures. Students also hone their skills in analysis, critical thinking, problem-solving, communication, ethical reasoning, and professionalism.

Science, Technology, Engineering & Mathematics (STEM) Programs

STEM Programs

The mission of SNHU's Global Campus STEM Department is to serve as a global leader in STEM education by providing learner-centric and cutting-edge opportunities focused on equitable access for all using innovative technology and teaching practices. Our programs challenge students to think critically, to grow as professionals, and become lifelong learners who possess the interdisciplinary skills needed in a transformative society.

The STEM Department offers robust and challenging programs that engage students' diverse learning styles using projects, technology, industry tools, experiential learning, and environments that both adhere to our rigorous learning outcomes and are authentic to the relevant field of professional practice. We take great pride in providing our students with a transformative educational experience and enriching the world through the advancement of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics one learner at a time.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEWEST GRADUATES!

Congratulations, graduates of the Class of 2025!

We're proud to welcome you to the SNHU Alumni Association, and honored to celebrate your accomplishments and the determination that got you here today. You're joining the ranks of more than 280,000 SNHU alumni worldwide, a diverse and accomplished network of professionals, community leaders and change makers.

Your alma mater is here for you after you graduate. We encourage your active participation in the SNHU community – with a multitude of ways to stay connected and get involved. You can give back by volunteering as a career coach, build your regional SNHU network, attend regional and virtual events, and so much more!

Visit alumni.snhu.edu to update your alumni profile, leverage career resources, learn about upcoming events, access other great benefits and find meaningful ways to continue your journey with SNHU.

In Service,

Aarron R. Dupuis '19MBA
President of SNHU Alumni Association
